A WEEK'S NEWS.

Gleaned by Telegraph and Mall

WASHINGTON NOTES. GENERAL SHERIDAN BOOK

THE Treasury, on the 1st, purchased 400, ened softening of the brain is said to have 500 ounces of allver for the Philadelphia, been the cause, New Orleans and San Francisco mints. Tue War Department has issued a special order appointing a Court of Inquiry to inestigate the cause of the failure of the Greeley relief expedition, and to report nati, Mrs. Welsh, on discovering the fire ons for the conclusions they may reach. Were THE Secretary of the Interior has sus-ducd. tained the Commissioner of Indian Affairs In his decision to the effect that the Department does not recognize the courts of the bis neck. He was one of the largest land cuted before a Judge of a court of record. The Secretary stated that it was not the inention of the law-makers that agreements dians, and such limited general informa-tion as the Judges of Indian Courts within Tim he Indian Country usually possessed.

an has been put in the hands of the Secretary of War. The army consists of 2,143 annual address. ficers and 23,335 men, the figures being uplicated Indian question dis- too heavy to carry off.

Public debt statement for October: Cash in Treasury, $504,347,501; dobt, less cash in Treasury, $1,811,506,737; decrease during October, $10,304,788; decrease since June port to the Secretary of the Interior recom

THE Adjutant General in his annual report, says the state militia has steadily improved in discipline, soldierly bearing and knowledge. He recommends the retire-ment on full pay of men who have faithfully served thirty-five years, and an amend-ment to the statute authorizing the Presilent to drop from the rolls of the army or desertion any officer absent from duty dation has a bearing on the Nickerson case ount of unpaid matter sent other coun-foreign mail matter was $2,078,913. THE Commissioner of the General Land Office, in his annual report, stated that the disposal of public lands during the year embraced 19,030,764 acres, and Indian lands 180,235 acres, an increase over 1832 of about tempting to shoot a rabbit in the fair 5,000,000 acres, and over 1881 of about grounds at Kansas City. 5,000,000 acres. The results from all ser-to the Attorney General submitting the coach, and, with drawn revolvers, ordered question whether he can legally detail an the passengers to hand out their money Colonel Corkhill, United States District check for $1,700 and a few articles of ap-Attorney, in investigating the frauds by parel were taken. When the train stopped will be to vigilantly carry out the law regarding this matter and to assist to the passengers of about $300, and made good best of his ability and authority in the their escape.

prosecution of those persons who have A BUNDLE of money amounting to about cline to grant authority to operate a National Bank in the Indian Territory. His for the payment of pensions during the Mint showed that the gold received and operated upon the past year was nearly coinage for the year is valued at $60,200,-704; total gold coin age, $35,936,927; silver, $38,835,470, of which $28,111,119 were stan dard dollars. The production of gold for the current calendar year will be $32,000,-000 and the silver $49,000,000.

THE Postmaster General has dismissed from the service Postoffice Inspector Amos P. Foster, for rendering false and fictitious secounts. He was stationed at Austin, Tex., and was rendering accounts for per them services which he never performed. He was stationed at Austin, THE issue of standard dollars for the week ended November 3, was 371,499.

In Brooklin, N. Y., Mrs. Charlotte Survive Long was sentenced to six and one-half years' imprisonment for causing the death of Charley Lewis. Her old age, the Judge and eight Central Pacific car leads of wheat.

Lieutenant Hunter, at Silver Creek, Arizona. In Brooklin, N. Y., Mrs. Charlotte Nur

penalty of twenty years.

INDICTMENTS were found by the Grand Jury of New York against ten City Govsrnment employes of the Comptroller's office and Bureau of Water Registrar. They were charged with misappropriating water rents and other city funds.

ARTHUR B. JOHNSON, a lawyer and wellknown politician, was found dead in his of-fice at Utica, N. Y., recently, a pistol ball in his breast. He was an uncle of Johnson L. Lynch, shot by Rowell, in Batavia, a few nights previous. They occupied the same office. Johnson probably committed suicide under the depression caused by the shooting of Lynch.

Ar Gibraltar, Pa., recently, twenty-on-Hungarian railroad laborers were arrested and sent to jail for rioting.

Cnow Dog, the Sioux Chief, under sentence of death at Deadwood, D. T., for the murder of the celebrated Chief Spotted Tail, recently escaped from his keepers.

ABOUT a month ago J. W. Dowd, of Indi ana, procured a livery tram at St. Joseph Mo., and disappeared. The other day he stepped off the train at St. Joseph, mistak ing the place for Atchison. He was nabbed officers. He confessed that he sold the fire in every direction, and totally destroy-ing the post-office, a hotel and, in fact, the ntire business portion of the town. The that the body had been in the water only a loss was over $50,000. A number of persons | Iew hours when found.

J. M. Cockenta, formerly editor of the Platte City (Mo.) Advocate, recently suicided by hanging, near that place. Threat-

MRS. MARY WELSE, aged sixty-five years, and her grandson, Charles Skillman, aged seven years, were suffocated the other went out and gave the alarm, leaving the ore Aleneral Court-martial, and the reswere found dead when the fire was sub-

Indian Territory as courts of record within | owners and farmers in Wisconsin, owning the meaning of section 2,103, revised about one hundred farms, besides large statutes, which requires that certain agree-tracts of land in Iowa and California. Mr. ments made with the Indians shall be exc. Sargent was a bachelor, and leaves his immense wealth to three nieces.

At the late session of the Womens' Christian Temperance Union, at Detroit, it was should be executed before the Judges hav-ing such a limited knowledge of the laws and treaties affecting the rights of the In-of special prayer in the churches for their

THE tenth annual session of the National he Indian Country usually possessed.

The last annual report of General Shergan in Detroit, Mich., on the 31st. Miss Frances E. Willard, President, read the

Two masked men, it was reported, robbed lmost identical with last year. General the vault of the County Treasury at Vir-therman considers Crook's Apache campaign as a success, and that if Crook is seized the Treasurer and locked him in the permitted to manage the Apaches in his vault. The affair was considered mysteriown way all wars will cease in Arizona, oue, as $4,000 of the amount was silver and NEARLY the entire portion of the village of Willoughby, O., was recently destroyed

10, $20,084,470.

The collarge at the mints during October legitimate Constitutional Convention to prepare one or two constitutions, or else five negroes were killed. pass an enabling act to be submitted to the people for ratification.

A7 Huntington, Ind., Charlotte Epps was

Ar Huntington, recently found guilty of murdering her husband, by poison, and sentenced to life imprisonment. Epps was a wealthy old imprisonment. Epps was a wealthy old day for New Orleans.

A PARKER of Perry County, Ky., recent-THE cannon ball train over the Humeston

& Shenandoah Road, going west, was wrecked the other night at a trestle work, clude officers on the retired list within the five miles east of Shenandeah, Iowa. The meaning of the law. The last recommendation of the law. THE Postmaster General estimates that den, engineer, was killed and the fireman for the past year the revenue collected in and express messenger seriously injured. the United States from unpaid matter received from foreign countries exceeded the lish circles, went to a window in the fourth story of her residence at Cincinnati, the tries by $123,333, and that the amount of other morning, to call the coachman and ostage collected in the United States on fell to the ground below. She was shockingly crushed and died soon after.

Wilson's flouring mill at Oxford, Iowa, burned recently. Loss, $10,000. ROBERT SCHOKN, fourteen years old, was accidentally killed the other day while at-

Ar an early hour on the morning of th ales of Indian lands $625,404, or a total of Railroad was nearing Danville, Ill., four men, who had boarded it some distance searched him. SECRETARY TELLER has written a letter over in Indiana, entered the passenger attorneys and claim agents upon pension-ers. Secretary Teller says his endeavor bound passenger train on the Wabash, St.

committed offenses against the pension $6,000, which was in the care of the Ameri-COMPTROLLER KNOX, it, is said, will de-night at Portage, Wis. W. P. Long, night cline to grant authority to operate a Natransfer agent, had the packages for the tional Bank in the Indian Territory. His Chicago & St. Louis Railway and Milwaudeclination is based upon the ground that kee Company and in passing through the the applicants are not citizens, hence not entitled to the privileges under the banking set.

It is estimated by the Commissioner of Pensions that $40,000,000 will be required for the scaled the car. Returning he found for the scaled the car. Returning he found for the scaled the car. No clew as to the thief. the package gone. No clew as to the thief. The Fat Stock Show at Kansas City proved a great success.

JORL SINGER, a boy of fifteen years, was killed in a saw mill at Rock Island, Ill., recently, by being caught in the belt and whirled around the shaft.

WILLIAM CONROY, a drunken St. Louis policeman, the other evening made an as-sault upon Peter Keenan, in a saloon, shot him, and then dragged him to the police station, clubbing his victim brutally on the way. Keenan died soon after and the brutal policeman was locked up. Eye-witnesses stated that Keenan was in no City. Manone seemed to have lost Virginia. way creating a disturbance when assaulted.

HENRY LONGSTREET and Gordon Ostrander, two young men were recently arrested with Republican gains. at Chicago, charged with a series of rob-beries from the United States Express Company. The latter was an employe of the company, who stole packages and Longstreet disposed of them.

Loss, $100,000.

At last the mystery surrounding the disappearance of Mary Churchill, daughter of the wealthy St. Louis merchant, who left home last August, has been solved by the discovery of the missing girl in the Insane Asylum at Indianapolis, Ind., where she had bired out as an ironer in the laundry of that institution. Her father was at once notified, and went to Indianapolis, where he identified his daughter, who was working under the assumed name of Jennie Lockwood. She left with her father to visit her mother, but declared she would return to work.

Officers recently captured in Harrison County, Ind., Faulkner, chief of the gang of counterfeiters, whose companions of few days previous were either killed or captured. He was living in a log house, built like a fort. While he manufactured coin his wife stood guard. She was also taken to jail.

A TERRIBLE cyclone visited Springfield, Mo., on the afternoon of the 5th, destroying property variously estimated in value at from $200,000 to $120,000, killing five persons outright and wounding over thirty more. Two hundred and fifty buildings were either wrecked or damaged.

A The late true house and children burned. Leg White, who had been baggage master on the Northwestern road, and who confersed to the robbery of a package of money in the express office at Onkfield, Wis, six mouths ago, committed snicide to the robbery had long remained a mystery.

FRANK WILKES, of Zanesville, O., grand-died of starvation.

MRS. FLEN LONG, a widow, and L. S. Whittemore, father of the boy found in the river at Princeton, Wis., with his throat text, have been arrested for the murder of the boy. It is said the woman once attempted to poison Mrs. Whittemore. The thory was that the holy was killed by Mrs. Long in her cellar, and that the father carried the body to the river and hid it in the place where be pretended to first discover it ten days inter. It was thought the carried the body to the river and hid it in the place where be pretended to first discover it ten days inter. It

THE steamer Katie P. Kountz and cargo was burned at Davis' Landing, La., recent-

The other night, during a circus performance at Edinburg, Ark., some unknown parties from the outside fired a volley of shots into the main exhibition canvas, and then beat a hasty retreat and disappeared, in the darkness escaping. The seats were crowded and builets passed through all sections of the audience. Cholman de Cilenbourg, one of the circus performers, a ntortionist, was shot through the head, dying in the ring. The citizens were mak-ing determined efforts to ferret out and ng to punishment the perpetrators of the dastardly act.

THE loss by the late Savannah (Ga.) fire was over one million dollars. Eight bodies had been recovered from the ruins, and it was thought a number of others were under the smouldering debris. AT Belton, Tex., the other night, as L. J.

Williams, a lawyer was passing the res-taurant of George Eckles, the latter stepped out and emptied four chambers of a six-shooter in Williams' back. Eckles then went inside and returned with a shotgun and discharged one barrel into Williams' shotgun and emptied both barrels into the ostrate form of his victim.

THE British steamship Spearman, that sailed from Galveston recently, with 4,500 bales of cotton for Liverpool, put into Key West, her cargo on fire.

AT Argenta, Ark., the other day J. H. Cavaness, a wealthy merchant of Drew County, on his way East to purchase goods, was accidentally caught between the plat form and a backing railway train and

THE country about Memphis, Tenn., was risited by a killing frost and ice on the 2d. In a recent conflict between whites and pegroes at Danville, Va., Walter Holland and Thomas Stewart were shot fatally and It is stated that silver ore from Mexico is being shipped to New Orleans, whose mint is more accessible for the mines with his daughter.

GENERAL.

Mr. Hazelton, the American Consul at Hamilton, Ont., was assaulted in his office the other night by a young man named currently believed in Paris, that De Brazza, the French explorer, had been killed in a fight in the Congo country, Africa.

Ar a meeting of the Conservatives at when in connection with the disposal of the as the west-bound passenger train on the forging a check on the Bank of Toronto. public land were $11,088,479, and from the Indianapolis, Bloomington & Western Forged American bonds were found upon of the trunks and diamonds belonging to the daughter of Secretary Teller, recently had a preliminary hearing at Bismarck, D. T., and were held for trial.

MAX WARMER, of Goshen, Ind., put a pistol "that was not loaded" to his breast and pulled the trigger to frighten his little slister. He frightened the girl, but fatally wounded himself.

To Jackson County, where he will be tried for trial to Jackson County, where he will be tried for train robbery.

Mas. T. B. Bullers, wife of sx-Mayor hunting, and when about to leave the house of the row of Kansas City, died suddenly the other objected and took the gun away from him, which she three in the room. The gun was discharged, the contents entering Mrs. Howard's body producing death in an inour.

Take town of Brookline, Mo., was also wisited by the late cycleus. One person was also and took Weils, the first hunting, and when about to leave the hunting, and when about on leave the huntin wounded himself.

A ring broke out the other morping at the Millon, Colo., stage and took wells, was killed and a number of others injured.

Several houses were completely wrecked.

Cuantus Wirremone, aged eleven years, the store of Sperry Bros., containing over disappeared from his home at Princeton.

The dwelling and barn on the farm of the store of Sperry Bros., containing over disappeared from his home at Princeton.

Wis, about two weeks since. The other lill, burned recently, together with thirty-

THE WAY WE DO IT.

formal Transfer of the Command of the Sheridan-No Fuss, No Parade, but "Swictly Business."

The formal transfer of the command of the army from General Sherman to Lieutenant General Sheridan took place at noon to-day at the hendquarters of Jeneral Sheridan spent the forenoon in making himself acquainted with the busiross of the office. General Sherman and nembers of his staif rendered him every assistance. Shortly before twelve o'clock the two highest officers of the army called in the Secretary of War-General Sherman to take official leave, and General Sheridan to report for duty. The transfer was acimplished quietly and without any cere nony whatever, beyond the issuance of the following general order, notifying the army of the change of commanders:

Histogicantens or vin Army, t
Washington, D. C., Nov. I. S
GENERAL ORDER, No. 77.

General, Onion, No. 77.

By and with the consent of the President, as somained in General Order No. 71 of October is, 1863, the undersigned relinquishes the command of the army of the United States. In Bus severing the relations which have hithered existed between us he thanks all the officers and morn for their fidelity to the trust imposed in them during his official life, and will in his extrement watch with parental solicitude her progress upward in the noble profession to which they have devoted their lives.

[Official]

B. G. DRUM, Adjutant-General.

HEADQUARTERS OF YOR ARMY, 1

WASHINGTON, D. C., NOV. 1.

GENERAL ORDER NO. 78.

These orders were the first and last official tels respectively of the outgoing and incoming commanders. The two officers remained in conversation for some time after the change occurred. O meral Sheridan reserved the congratulations of a number of prominent gentlemen from all over the country.

Shortly after the transfer General Sherman and General Sheridan held an informal reception, attended by all the officers of the army on duty in Washington, also by the officers of the Second Artillery dationed at Fort Malhenry and the bureau afficers of the department. All took official leave of General Sherman, and were by him presented to General Sherman and General Sheridan, accompanied by the Secretary of War, made an official call upon the President, and were confially received.

AN IMPORTANT CAPTURE.

A Gang of Initiana Counterfelters, After Months of Waiting and Watching, Cor-raled and Captured, Though not Without a Desperate Fight.

Lincoln, ILL. Nov. 1.
The Coroner's jury in the Zura Burns case convened in secret session at nine o'clock this morning and did not adjourn until two p. m., when they returned the following

FOUND AT LAST.

The Missing St. Louis Girl, Mary Church-III. Discovered at Last. An Enterprising Newspaper Reporter Finds Her Em-ployed at Indianapolis Insane Asylum. played at Indianapora Wary Returns to her Home in Company

After nearly three months of anxiety, during which time nearly the entire detectorial fraternity, have followed clew after only to find themselves on a false scent in their search for the missing Mary Chuchill, the girl has at last been found; and the credit of her discovery and return to her home belongs to Mr. Thomas J. Gal-lagher, a St. Louis newspaper reporter. On Saturday last, from information re-seived in the course of following up other clews, the reporter in question became con-vinced that Mary Unarchill was an inmate in some capacity of the insane Asylum at Indianapolis, and, in company with Captain Campbell, of the Indianapolis solice, drove out to that institution, carryog with him a likeness of the truant girl. Upon meeting Dr. Fletcher, the Superin-tendent of the Asylum, and producing the tikeness, the Doctor declared it to be that a young lady employed in the laundry and known as Jennie Lockwood, who had been there since the 3d or 4th of September. The Matron, Mrs. Frances A. Talbot, was she was discovered made no attempt to deny her identity and at once engaged in a deny her identity and at once engaged in a conversation with regard to her parents and the other members of the family. The local to keep silent, which she has done.

preparations to go and bring his daughter acme, arriving in Indianapolis Sunday. The ing Tuesday to Brandon, where we stopped in the bouse of a friend, following Tuesday to Brandon, where we stopped in the bouse of an acquaintance, coming the bouse of a friend, following the bouse of a friend the bouse of a fr place at the Spencer House and was strictly private, though from their manner as described when seen a few minutes later, it must have been one of satisfaction to both.

The property of the property o

Physicians in this city are studying the case of a girl thirteen years old whose legs below the knee are so sensitive they can not be touched between daybreak and midnight, but at twelve midnight become so insensitie to iseling that the strongest current of electricity has no effect on them. She walks and runs about at play in the daytime, but if she strikes any object she is thrown integrarysms of agony. While the lower part of ber limbs are in this condition, her legs from the knee up are completely dead. The disease came on a year ago. She is strong and healthy, except for cataleptic convulsions.

Daring Train Robbery.

daring robberies took place on roads run ning into this city. As the west-bound pas-senger train on the Indianapolis, Ricom-ington & Western Railroad was nearing verdict:

In the matter of the inquisition on the body of Missouri Burns, deceased, held at Lincoln. Ill., from October It to November I, 1853, we the undersigned furors, sworn to inquire of the death of Missouri Burns, on eath do find that she came to har death by the means of a wound in throat produced by some sharr instrument in the hands of some persons, to this jury unknown.

Thos. W. Kriyon,

Foreman.

The prisoner is still in jail, under a warr rant sworn out before a justice of the peace.

The prisoner is still in jail, under a warr rant sworn out before a justice of the peace.

FRANK DUROIS.

An Interclew with the Wife and Mother

Was Deserted Hop Family, Donned Male Apparel, and Married a Young Girl. BRANDON, Wis., Nov. 2.-The question band of the Waupun young lady, has been settled and all doubts set at rest by a statement made to a reporter. The latter sucreeded in tracing the couple from Wanpun ecceed to avoid arrest, and finally followed them seven miles into the country, where they had taken refuge at the house of a questioned, and finally acknowledged him-self to be a woman, the wife of S. J. Hud-sen, of Belvidere,

Dubois was in his shirt-sleeves, a slightly-Dulois was in his shirt-sleeves, a slightly-built, effeminate-looking personage, four feet eleven inches fall, slight figure, weigh-ing about one hundred pounds, hips broad-chest full, arms short, and hands and feet very small and sleeding. He has every ap-pearace of a woman. The woman known as his wife is apparently about seventien years old, about Pubois' height, and is rather a pretty blonde with dark hair. She was in tears, and appeared greatly distressed when the question of her husband's

When first asked the question Dubole sisted that he was a man, and held stead fastly to that statement until his wife, with

The Matron, Mrs. Frances A. Talbot, was of the same opinion, and Jennie was sent for. Here a new dilemma arose—she had gone down to the city and was expected to remain over night. With a hot clue, however, the reporter was not to be thwarted, and accordingly proceeded at once to ascertain the whereabouts of the girl; and, accompanied by Mrs. Talbot, proceeded to the home of Annie Holtgen, in the southern part of the city, with whom "Jennie" termined to lose all identity as the wife and mother by assuming the guise of a man mother by assuming the guise of a man. or in obedience to the order No. 18.

In obedience to the order No. 11, October 18, 1983, from these headquarters, the undersigned hereby assumes command of the Army of the United States. The following amuel officers will comprise the personal staff of the Lieutenant-General: Major Michael V. Sheridan, Assistant Adjuntationeral; Major Michael V. Corps of Engineers, add-de-camp.

[Official.] P. H. Sukukanax.

[Official.] R. C. Dhux, Adjutant-General.

R. C. Dhux, Adjutant-General.

These orders were the first and last official.

These orders were the first and last official.

party at once returned to the Asylum and Mias Churchill was placed in compounding extracts which I disposed of party at once returned to the Asylum and Mias Churchill was placed in sharge of Dr. Fletcher, who kindly assured her that if also did not desire to return home she could remain with him and he would do all in his power to make ber happy.

Upon receipt of the intelligence in this rity Colonel Churchill was at once communicated with, and he made immediate preparations to go and bring his daughter must have been one of satisfaction to both.

Colonel Churchill, accompanied by his laughter and her consin, Dr. Robert Van Valsak, of Terre Haute, and A. J. Kelley, also of Terre Haute, left Indianapolis Sunside of Terre Haute, and A. J. Kelley, lake to the story. Side in Waupun, where her father and a brother were engaged in the nursery pushiess. She had married Frank Dubols (or Mrs. Hudson) and had after the martiage discovered that her husband was of the terre of the terre of the story. Side of the story of Schwartz, the Democratic condidate for Judge of the Orphana' Court, was printed on the county ticket instead of being put separate as judiciary. Smith accused Ermentrout of having had this done purposely to accomplish the defeat of Schwartz. High words onsued between the two, when James M. Ermentrout, a brother of the Congressman, struck Smith a blow in the face, drawing blood. Smith then attacked Ermentrout, when Sheriff Gehert, who was one of the witnesses to the affair, separated the two belligerents. Shortly thereafter the parties again met on the court-house steps, when Smith struck Congressman Ermentrout, knesking him down, when he was also kicked by one of the crowd. Ermentsout's face shows visible signs of the encounter. The whole affair, it seems, was indirectly brought about through certain letters celler's County rollics which have appeared from time to time in a Philadelphia paper. The excitement is high over the master to political riceies. At an early hour this morning two most of Dawson, who was jost on the pratrie un the 9th, was found yesterday wandering in a demonted and starving condition, on that Breed trail, near Devil's Lake, two hundred miles from Dawson.

PERSONAL AND LITERARY.

"Yes," said Mr. Dustle, who fought a duel with a dude, "I didn't fire at all. You see, every time I looked at him to take aim, he appeared so durned ridiculous I couldn't help laughing, so I could not hold the pistol still."—Boston Post.

still."—Boston Post.

—A legal gentleman met a brother hawyer one day iast week, and the following conversation took place: "Well, Judge, how is business?" "Dull, dull; I am living on faith and hope." "Very good, but I have got past you, for I'm living on charity."—Ezchange.

—A heavy rain came up as a Coney Island party was in swimming, and several rushed for the bathing houses for fear of getting wet Thompson's colt didn't know enough to come in when it rained; but these were another kind of fool.—N. Y. Commercial.

—A Gentle Hint.—

so odd about that?" "Nothing, nothing," she replied, trying to blush, "only those are exactly my sentiments." If that young man hadn't taken the hint and proposed then and there she would have hated him.—Detroit Fost.

"Do I love you? Do I love you?

Ask the heavens that bend shore you

If they love the loving sun."

They are married now, and have set up their stoves.—Brooklyn Eagle.

A Celebrated Case.

PERSONAL AND LITERARY.

—Ina D. Coolbrith, the poetess, is public librarian at Oakland, Cal.

—Miss Fletcher, the charming American girl who wrote "Kismet," has finished another novel.

—Miss Mira Compton, of Hanceck County, O., engaged to be married to three different lovers, eloped with a fourth and married him.—Detroit Post, —Miss Emily McTavish, aged twenty, a very rich belle of Baltimore, has given up her worldly possessions and taken the vows of the Sisters of Charity.

—Mr. Bowker, the agent in London for Hurper's, says that more copies of the magazine are sold there than of any of the aglish magazines, except God Words.

—Mr. Blaine has refused an offer of $100,000 for his history "From Lincoln to Garfield," and will collect a royalty of fifty cents on cach volume sold.—N. Y. Times.

—S. S. Montague, who died recently in Southern Oregon, selected the routes, ran the lines and made the grades of the Central Paofile Railroad over the Sierra Nevadas. The task had been previously pronounced impossible by kinglish eivil engineers.

—Rev. Charles Edwin Burdette, who sailed from New York recently for India, where he will labor as a missionary in Assam, is a brother of "Bob" Burdette, who sailed from New York recently for India, where he will labor as a missionary in Assam, is a brother of "Bob" Burdette, of Hawkeye fame. He was graduat d in 1880 at Brown University, and ir 1885 at Newton Theological Institut on. whore he will labor as a missionary in Assam, is a brother of "Bob" Burdette, of Howbey fame. He was graduar of in 1880 at Brown University, and in 1883 at Newton Theological fistivation.

—Of making books there is no end. The American publishing houses as nounce the forthcoming appearance of no less than 966 books. In the distribution of these books among publishing houses, New York, Boston and Philadelphia are the great centers. Chicago has two or three enterprising houses, and Cincinnati, Baltimore, Bufalo and one or ive other points are represented.—Chicago Journal.

—Fifty years ago Rev. Dr. S. Irenaus Frime, editor of the New York, Boston and Philadelphia are followed the product of the New York, Observer, delivered at Bedford, Westchester County, N. Y., his first sermon. Dr. Prime preached again in the same village recently, occupied that position on the Observer forty-three years. Every minister of the Presbytery of New York at the time he joined it is now dead.—N. Y. Times.

—Jules Verne, the French story-teller, whose "Kerahan le Teau" is now in full swing in Paris, is about fifty years old; his hair and beard are turning white, and his once supple c.nd elegant figure is beginning to give way to a comfortable embonopoint; but his face is full of intellectual vigor. He was originally destined for the bar, but soon found that his true field was literature, and, after several attempts to succeed on the exchange, at the age of thirty, he published his "Journey Young laids, who are found of dancing, have their "heads full of balls" all winter.—Norristone Herald.

—"Cleveland has a young lady who has had a brallet in her head for three weeks." That's nothing. Some society young laids, who are full of balls" all winter.—Norristone Herald.

—"Cleveland has a young lady who has had a brallet in her head for three weeks." That's nothing. Some society young laids, who are full of balls." All winter.—Norristone Herald.

—"Cleveland has a young lady who has had a brallet in her head for three weeks." That's nothin -Quality and quantity: "The idea of | ceeded to Gretna Green, and, with her —Quality and quantity: "The idea of mysbeing seasons of Miss Smith!" exclaimed Mrs. Brown, indignantly: "the idea of my being seasons of her, when I think so much of her?" "Yes, but what do you think?" asked Brown.—Boston Transcript.

—"Yes," said Mr. Dustle, who fought a duel with a dude, "I didn't fire at all. You see, every time I looked at him to take aim, he appeared to be a satisfied with an annual allowance suitable to bis wants to live it to first society of Europa. It is grantlying to know that Europe. It is gratifying to know that the father did not consent, and that af-fairs were managed so cleverly that Mr. Wakefield was eventually sentenced to three years in Newgate,—Cincinnate Enounter.

A Very Self-Willed Horse.

Inwing conversation took places, "Well, Judge, how is knimsers." But dulty pook but it have got past you, for I'm lying on charity." Exchange, —A heavy rain came up as a Coney Island party was in swimming, an several rushed for the bathing house for fear of getting wet Thompson's colt didn't know enough to come in when it rained; but these were another kind of fool.—N. F. Commercial.
—A Gentle Hint.—

Ber lips were like the leaves, he saidthy attempts of the senting of the senting hands of the senting hands of the senting of the senting hands of the senting